Learning for All

Inspiring Learning, Changing Lives

Learning for All

Our broad Learning for All programme offers courses throughout Buckinghamshire, supporting adults with additional needs to develop independent living and work skills in a collaborative and creative environment.

Our aim is to help our learners to:

- gain independence
- enhance their employability opportunities
- develop their communication skills
- develop their decision making and problem-solving skills
- engage with and participate in the community
- have the opportunity to maintain physical and mental well-being
- develop English, maths and digital skills
- gain confidence to make friends and develop social skills
- acquire skills which have a positive impact on their everyday life

Learning for All Courses

We offer a range of courses, including:

- Art and wellbeing
- Cooking on a budget
- Developing Communication skills through drama
- Digital skills
- Everyday English and maths
- Getting ready for work and volunteering
- Movers and Shakers
- Sewing and textiles

Our dedicated Tutors and Learning Support Assistants provide a personalised learning journey for every student that is challenging, varied and fun. All we ask from our students is their commitment.

Please let us know which course(s) you're interested in and we will get back to you as soon as we can!

What our learners say

"Coming to my class has helped me meet new people and build my confidence." Claire

"When things are not going well, and you are feeling lonely you always have class to look forward to. Making friends and learning something new helps you feel better about yourself." Sam

"Everything is online even making an appointment to see a doctor. Coming to class is helping me learn how to use a computer and to be able to contact friends and family." David

"The cookery class is fun as well as helping you learn new recipes and how to budget." Maria
